Implementation Plan

Microsoft Project is the management tool in the figure below that is being used to create the visual timeline overview for the entire development of project, allocate tasks to resources (team members), track progress and adjust the tasks and resources allocation. There's also the possibility within Microsoft Project to calculate the cost of the entire project with proper cost to resources allocation.